Important Information

- Print Credits can only be used to produce the finest prints & enlargements from our affiliated professional photo labs.
- Low Resolution image files are supplied to you for sharing on Social Media and viewing on Cell Phones, Tablets and Computer monitors. They may not be used for having prints made by photo labs not affiliated with Lenny Rosen Photography. They will not produce professional quality prints due to their low resolution.
- We do not sell or issue High Resolution image files to customers because we want to control the quality and reputation of our brand.
